Subject: - Restriction on taking benefits by the employees of the Charity Organisation from Public Trusts

It has come to the notice of the Charity Commissioner that some of the employees of the Charity Organisation are in receipt of scholarships or other benefits for themselves or for the members of their families from the public trusts. The Charity Organisation are in receipt of scholarships or other benefits for themselves or for the members of their families from the public trusts. The Charity Organisation has a special responsibility attached to it since it is dealing with the public trusts created for specific objects and there should not, therefore, be an impression that while dealing with the matters relating to these trusts, the employees of the Organisation are enjoying or trying to derive benefits from the public trusts is preference to others, who are entitled to such benefits.

2. It is therefore, directed that no application for the benefit of any sort be made and /or no benefit , direct or indirect , should be received or derived by the employees of the Charity Organisation for themselves or for the members of their families without the prior sanction in writing of the Charity Commissioner and whenever any benefit is promised or received by an employee in a Regional Officer, the matter should be immediately reported to the Charity Commissioner by or through the Regional Officer concerned.

3. For the purposes of this circular, the term 'benefit' will include even the reservation of a block in a Sanatorium run by a public trust and the term 'members of their families' will include all near relatives of the employees whether dependant on them or not.

4. This circular will apply to Officers in the Regional Offices and the Charity Commissioner's Office, also.
